CHAPTERS 2010 AUTHORS

TIM THARP lives in Oklahoma where he writes novels and teaches in the humanities department at Rose State College. In addition to earning a B.A. from the University of Oklahoma and an M.F.A. from Brown University, Tharp has been a factory hand, construction laborer, psychiatric aide, long-distance hitchhiker and record-store clerk. His first novel, "Falling Dark," was awarded the Milkweed National Fiction Prize. "Knights of the Hill Country," his first novel for young adults, won the Oklahoma Book Award and was named to the American Library Association's Best Books of 2007 list. Tharp's novel "The Spectacular Now" was a finalist for the 2008 National Book Award.

WILL THOMAS is the author of the Victorian-era Cyrus Barker and Thomas Llewelyn mystery series that includes "Some Danger Involved," "To Kingdom Come," "The Limehouse Text," "The Hellfire Conspiracy," and "The Black Hand," which was nominated for a 2009 Shamus Award by the Private Eye Writers of America. Thomas also has been nominated for the Barry Award.

WILLIAM BERNHARDT is the author of more than 20 novels (most famously, the Ben Kincaid mystery series) and two children's books. He has edited two anthologies and published numerous stories, essays, puzzles and poems. Bernhardt also hosts the annual William Bernhardt Writing Workshop, created The Fundamentals of Fiction DVD to guide aspiring student writers, founded the HAWK Publishing Group, and participates in numerous speaking and teaching engagements throughout the year.
